The Washington birthday anniversary celebration of Strong John Thom-son School, 12th and L streets, yesterday, consisted of assembly singing of patriotic hymns, recitations, readings and a short play. G. Grosvenor Dawe, former chief of the editorial division of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, addressed the scholars. "America," "Flower of Liberty" and Keller's "America Hymn" were sung in chorus. Girls of the school presented the play, and a tableau, "Crowning of Washington," was participated in by pupils of class B, seventh grade. Recitations were given by Roy Whitman, Kennolds Massey, Mary Louise Lenion, James Corrigan and Wilson Hoff: Leslie Mitchell, Charles Lynch, Roger Seaton and Elmer Catlin recited in concert, and there was a reading by John Metzerott.

In Memoriam.

DAVIS. In sad and loving remembrance of my dear mother, LIZZIE M. DAVIS, who die one year ago today, February 20, 1914.

Mother, how we miss you No one can ever tell.

A place is vacant in our home Which never can be filled.

BY HER LOVING DAUGHTER BLANCHE AND GRANDCHILDREN.

HOLMES. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear brother, JAMES HOLMES, who de-parted this life four years ago today, Feb-ruary 20, 1911.

Fareweil, brother dear, may your slumber be
As gentle as your love.
And when God shall call us homeward
May we meet in heaven above.
BY HIS DEVOTED BROTHER AND SISTER,
ROBERT AND FANNIE HOLMES.

wife, who departed this life two years ago, February 20, 1913.

I know not why death should come
To take my wife from my home.
But though my cyces with tears be dim
The Lord knows best. I'll trust in Him.
Sleep on, dear wife, sweet be your rest.
I need you, but God knew best.
God's will be done. He doeth well.
How I miss you no tongue can tell.

By Her Delycoper HINSLAND. BY HER DEVOTED HUSBAND.

Dear is the grave where my loved one is laid; Sweet is the memory that nev r shall fade. Flowers may wither, I aves fade and die: Though others forget you, no, never shall I. BY HER LOVING SON GEORGE.
